R.C.M.P. READY TO ENTER CONTRACT

In a letter received last week, V.M. Seppala, Commanding "K" Division R.C.M.P., indicates that the force is now prepared to enter an agreement with the town for policing by the R.C.M.P.

Commissioner Seppala states in his letter that permission has been received from Ottawa for use of the present Detachment Quarters in Drayton Valley for the municipal contract manpower.

He notes that a firm date for the contract to become effective can now be made and asked for indication from the town regarding this date. Council agreed that the contract be entered as soon as the accommodations are available.

Cost to the town for rental of the RCMP Detachment building will be $178 per month.

Commissioner Seppala added that the only delay he expects to encounter is the time required to move four more men to Drayton Valley. He also noted that living accommodations may present a problem and asked for Council's help in this regard.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

At its last regular meeting on Thursday, April 23rd, Town Council reviewed the purchase of land adjoining West Valley Park from Mr. Art Wood. Agreement was reached to purchase the unsubdivided portion of the NW 1/4 of 8-49-7-W5, less the area of his residence and adequate yard from Mr. Wood at the price of $400 per acre.

A portion of the purchased land will be used to increase parking facilities at the park and a suggestion has already been put forward to utilize another 11 acres for a new trailer park.

Council heard a proposal from Mr. L. Hogarth to establish a trailer park in the newly acquired area south of West Valley Park. Council asked that the Town Engineer investigate costs of servicing with sewer and water and an access road and decided to reserve decision until the May 7 meeting and receipt of the engineer's report.

After hearing the protest of a resident, Council upheld the action of the Dog Warden in apprehending a dog on April 21st.

World Book Publications, by letter, requested group coverage under one license fee. Council decided to table the request until the review of the Business License Bylaw.

Council considered the problem of parking at the Post Office location following a recent accident. No decision was reached and the matter tabled for further consideration.

The entire Council sat as a Court of Revision and dealt with several appeals.

Y.E.S. Accepting Applications

Gormley or Pat Coppens at 542-3440 on Saturdays between 2 - 4 p.m. or come down to the Recreation Department in the Town Hall on Saturdays. The Youth Employment Services try to find jobs for all students over 13 years of age.

Meeting Considers School Possibility

At the last regular meeting of Town Council, Mayor Tom Johnson reported on a meeting between town representatives, County of Parkland School Committee representatives and Dr. Hall and Mr. Blockside of the School Buildings Board.

Mr. Johnson noted that there still appeared to be opposition from the provincial authorities on spending for a new high school -- particularly in the area of gymnasium facilities. Mr. Johnson was accompanied by Councillor Bill Rose at the meeting and County representatives were Councillor Bailey and Vowk and Superintendent Henry Toews.

Council confirmed its decision to put up half the extra costs in making a new auditorium suitable for community purposes.

Council went on to discuss methods of raising money for the proposed community centre. It was decided to seek the opinion of community organizations in this matter and the secretary was authorized to write and attempt to determine feelings about money-raising efforts.

Service Station Official Opening

Official opening of L.B. Motors new Imperial Service Station will take place on Friday, May 1st with a highlight of the day from a camping trailer at 7:00 p.m.

The draw for the trailer winner will be made from a barrel of purchase slips which has been filling up during most of April. Several other prizes will also be awarded.

Free coffee and doughnuts will be served on grand opening day.

Bay 300th Anniversary

In the early days, the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's Bay was solely interested in the fur trade. Today this firm, better known as the Hudson's Bay Company, is a merchandising giant with sales in excess of $450 million dollars.

Major stores are located in Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver, Victoria and Montreal. The Northern Stores Department, with 217 stores, that includes the store in Drayton Valley, are spotted in smaller communities and outposts across the country.

On Saturday, May 2nd the 300th Anniversary of the Company will be observed. Birthday cake and coffee will be served to visitors to the Drayton Valley Store Saturday, May 2nd and a coloring contest with prizes held for children.

ANNUAL MARCH SATURDAY, MAY 9

At a noon luncheon last Friday the Drayton Valley Miles For Millions committee decided on Saturday, May 9th for the annual walk in aid of the world's needy.

However, prior to the walk, a public meeting has been called for Friday, May 1st at 8:00 p.m. in the Town Council Chambers in an effort to determine public opinion on a number of aspects of the annual undertaking.

The present M.M. committee, which has served intact since the first march, is hopeful that residents who have offered criticism of aspects of the undertaking in the past, will be present for the meeting and put forth useful suggestions that might enhance the fund-raising undertaking.

The committee asks that local clubs make an effort to have representatives present for the meeting as well as all individuals who are interested.

The meeting will review past marches, solicit suggestions, consider allocation of funds and also offer the opportunity to replace members of the present committee with new officers. Some members of the committee have asked to be replaced.

The committee, which is still unanimous in the opinion that the original intent of the march, which was to help underprivileged people around the world, should still be its first consideration and has accordingly allocated funds to charitable organizations serving this purpose as well as helping in local cases of need. About $4,000 remains in the bank from previous marches.

Members of the committee are Father Lynch, F. Schipper, W. Johanneson, R. Doig and R. Smith.

Forms for Miles for Millions Marchers are now available in town for all those who plan to take part in this year's march on Saturday, May 9th. Forms may be obtained at the Senior and Junior High Schools, St. Anthony's School, Bambees and the Royal Bank.

Changes Possible In Tourist Areas

Mr. Russell H. McKinney, Executive Director of the Edmonton Area Industrial Development Association, paid a "get acquainted" visit to the Drayton Valley Town Council last Thursday. Mr. McKinney was recently appointed Executive Director of E.A.I.D.A., replacing Mr. Johnson who has retired.

Mr. McKinney distributed copies of the new brochure produced by E.A.I.D.A. and being distributed throughout the western industrial and business world. He noted that he plans to visit all member areas of the association to become better acquainted with the whole area.

Drayton Valley joined the group during the past year and is represented by Town Councillor Marvin Helm.

Mr. McKinney went on to say that he is optimistic about the possibilities of E.A.I.D.A. and feels that its efforts will bear more fruit in the light of the present day encouragement of a greater degree of decentraliza-

He noted that Provincial Government authorities are now quite interested in setting up regions by the Industrial and Development Branch that would make co-terminous boundaries for tourism and industrial efforts. There is a great deal of merit in this proposal, he said, and added that he expects to see considerable work done along this line before the tourist season of 1971.

Mr. McKinney, who is also District Governor of Rotary International, attended the Wednesday evening supper meeting of the local club. He noted his pleasure returning to Drayton Valley, an area he knew well when stationed here with the RCMP in the pre-boom days.

Lariat Club Plans Gymkhana

The Lariat Gymkhana Club will hold its first Gymkhana of the season at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 3rd at the Lions Park Rodeo Grounds, weather permitting.

Membership fees will have to be paid before riding in the first gymkhana this year.

POLLUTION: Something Can be Done!

THAMES DIED, THEN REVIVED

Not so long ago the miasma drifting off the Thames was so powerful that Parliament on the riverside had to shut up shop occasionally as it became unbearable even through the disinfectant-soaked curtains.

When Arthur F. Green went to work on Thames pollution 41 years ago, he says, hardened denizens of Woolwich on the south bank used to vomit in the streets on some of the river bad days.

The beautiful bright ships of the Peninsular and Oriental line would levy big bills regularly against the London river authorities. The rising whiffs of hydrogen sulphide, the familiar stink-bomb gas of youngsters - quickly darkened their white-leaded hulls to a dirty grey.

And on all the thousands of ships using the bustling river deckhands went crazy as all brasswork reverted to a sickly blue almost as soon as it had been polished.

"The change has been dramatic", says Green of the way Father Thames, once one of the world's dirtiest rivers, is making an expensive come-back to become one of the cleanest streams in Britain.

The sewage volume at times is more than the amount of fresh water coming down from above Teddington Lock, the point where the tide stops. However, the wash of the salt water helps keep the pollution level down.

Much of the problem in earlier years came from the fact that the Port of London Authority, while having nominal control of pollution, hadn't much elbow room. For many years it could only say yes or no to a body wanting to discharge into the Thames, without laying down conditions if it said yes. It was reluctant to tell municipal authorities, traditionally putting their sewage into the river, to take it elsewhere if they refused to process it.

Even the fish, which gave up on the Thames a century or so ago, are coming back in numbers. Mostly they are coarse fish, which put up with polluted water the best.

The Thames was a salmon river in the days of Izaak Walton but the salmon fled more than a century ago from the uncontrolled outpourings of raw sewage. Even the coarse fish eventually followed.

Experts agree now there is not much chance of the salmon making a comeback after all these years. However, some trout have been turning up in the higher tidal reaches of the river and anglers are hopeful of good fishing later.

It has been a long fight to reverse history in the Thames which had been accepting untreated sewage from millions of people for centuries before officials like Green started working on it a couple of generations ago.

Green now is the recognized expert on Thames cleanup. He was scientific adviser to the Greater London Council and on his retirement last year was snapped up by a commercial firm that consults on pollution reduction with the Port of London Authority, which has control over what can be dumped into the 90 miles of tidal Thames.

This control is rigid now. Until recent years it was fairly haphazard and 600,000,000 gallons of sewage - including industrial - a day flowed into the river without much control.

The PLA did not get parliamentary authority to impose its own conditions until 1964, though well before that some of the riverside municipalities had gone into sewage treatment on their own.

And just about in time. Some of the Thames's tributaries including the nobly named Duke of Northumberland's River, were composed mainly of sewage before anti-pollution measures took hold. Now they are clean enough generally for good fishing and for drinking water.

But the pollution fighters have had their troubles.

One municipality that had been sending huge quantities of sewage into Thames tributaries at 22 points built a single treatment plant for all its effluent in the 1930's. One and all assumed that its discharge was being cleaned up. It was not until 1963 that some scientific detective work uncovered the fact that the plant had gone haywire about 1950 and the municipality had been quietly dumping partly processed "activated sludge" into the big river for 13 years.

Right now, Green says practically all of the sewage going into the Thames is fully treated except for that of some riverside industrial plants on which the authorities are putting pressure.

The result is that oxygen content of the water - which makes the difference between a live stream and a dead one - rises to between 40 and 70 per cent of saturation in some stretches. In a pure stream it would be 95 per cent. Carp, about the toughest of fish, can survive in 25 per cent. In the bad old days, the Thames ran around one per cent.

Cleaning up the Thames has been costing around $60,000,000 a year in treatment plants and other expenses in recent years. From about the filthiest, it has become an example for all of the hundreds of polluted streams in Britain - a problem which is beginning to give the government as much concern as in Canada. A rough estimate of getting them all into shape is $1,000,000,000.

Those delighted fans of the Thames who have been watching its comeback think it worthwhile.

An appeal for a more widespread program was made in the House of Lords recently by the Earl of Bessborough, whose father was the 1931-35 governor general of Canada and was a noted anti-pollutionist as president of the Royal Sanitary Institute. He said the balance of nature is being upset by lack of fish and insect life in turbid rivers.

Canadians on the March

Canada's Miles for Millions began in 1967 as a Centennial Year project to increase public awareness of the needs of developing countries. In the first year 22 communities across Canada held walks involving 99,000 walkers who raised a total of $1,200,000.

There was concern that year for the emergency caused by drought in the Indian state of Bihar. Money raised by walking Canadians was used on vital well-digging projects, water conservation programs, and increasing agricultural production. When the rains did come to Bihar, much of the work done during the emergency proved of lasting value.

In 1968, the Miles for Millions National Walk Committee was formed to make the Walks a co-operative effort across Canada. The Committee is a coordinating body representing 15 voluntary international development agencies. These work in cooperation with local Walk Committees, both directly and through field staff.

1968 saw a health increase in the number of walks held across Canada. Fifty-two walks, involving some 210,000 walkers, raised nearly $3 million.

In 1969, the Walk movement gained real momentum. Some 400,000 Canadians of all ages took part in 114 community walks, raising nearly $4,500,000.

In addition, Canadian-style walks have spread to other countries such as Australia, Belgium, Holland, and the United States where over 30 walks were held last year.

Behind the walkers are the sponsors who put money on them, and also a legion of dedicated volunteers who plan the walk, man the checkpoints, patrol the route, and afterwards help to collect the funds and send out the receipts.

To date, one Canadian in every five has been involved in the Miles for Millions walk program.

Boy, Have They Got Rabbits

The Advertiser-Topic want ad page has been working full time these past three weeks against some of the breedingest rabbits you ever saw.

Mrs. Harold Wilton of the 10th Line West started out with four rabbits last May and by this March she had 500.

So she put a want ad in The Topic. She ran it three times and in three weeks she was down to 45 rabbits. People flocked to the Wilton home.

It seems like everyone in the countryside wants rabbits for Easter, said Mrs. Wilton.

But then the rabbits got busy. The best of the big white females produces 10 to 12 at a time and the gestation period is only 28 days. Now the rabbits are gaining on our want ad and Mrs. Wilton has ordered the ad run again.

Customers with courage do not buy just one rabbit. One lady bought seven and five had babies. The lady was so delighted, said Mrs. Wilton, that she bought another 10.

Next March our want ad department expects to hear from that lady.

Mrs. Wilton says Mr. Wilton is thinking of going into ferrets.

Summary Regular Meeting Parkland School Committee

Meeting of the School Committee of the County of Parkland No. 31 continued in the County Office on Thursday, April 17th. Present were Messrs. R.A. Bailey, George Mann, L.N. Miller, Peter Bakker, Roy Lent, Ivan Vowk, Don Gylander, Mrs. Elizabeth Howery and Mrs. A.C. Kritzinger, School Committee members, also Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Henry Toews, and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer A.W. Boychuk.

PROPOSED SCHOOL SITE DRAYTON VALLEY

The following letter was received from the Town of Drayton Valley regarding the re-locating of the flowline on the proposed school site:-

"Re: Proposed School Site
NE 1/4 9-49-7-W5
Re-location flowline

At meeting of Council of the Town of Drayton Valley held this morning, the following resolution was passed unanimously: "That the Council of the Town of Drayton Valley do hereby authorize accepting responsibility for fifty percent (50%) of the costs of re-locating the Mobil Oil Canada Limited flowline presently installed in the proposed school site in part of NE 1/4 of Section 9-49-7-W5, exclusive of the portion absorbed by Mobil Oil Canada Ltd. itself."

"From the tone of this resolution it can be taken that the Town of Drayton is prepared to pay for fifty percent (50%) of those costs, over and above the costs absorbed by Mobil Oil Canada Ltd., for the re-location of the flowline presently running diagonally across the parcel of land proposed for school site in the said quarter."

"Council are hopeful that this transaction can now be brought to an early conclusion."

It was moved and carried that the School Committee recommend to County Council to accept the offer of the Town of Drayton Valley to share equally the costs of relocating the flowline on the proposed school site in Drayton Valley on the basis of Mobil Oil Canada Ltd. estimate of costs not to exceed $4,500 of which Mobil Oil will absorb 50%.

PROPOSED SCHOOL DRAYTON VALLEY

The following letter was received from Mr. L.G. Hall regarding the proposed school facilities in Drayton Valley:- "It has come to my attention that there has been no specific answer to the brief to the School Buildings Board that was part of the presentation in the Minister's office on February 4th. It has been assumed that the reply was interrelated with the answer to the request of the delegation for a separate high school building on a new site at Drayton Valley."

"It has been accepted that there was a shortage of school accommodation including space for the elementary pupils. It is conceivable that an addition for them might be made to the Junior High School building. This would then have meant a much smaller addition to the senior high school."

"However, considerations were based on the request that the junior high school building would be used for elementary grades and that the junior high school pupils would be accommodated elsewhere. Thus the recognition of an addition to the senior high school building to accommodate junior and senior high school grades. This would permit effective use of science laboratories, library, and enlarged Industrial Arts and Home Economic facilities, gymnasium and administrative areas without the duplication of many of these features in another building."

"As you have been informed, the recognition for an addition provided for 10 classrooms, 3 ancillary rooms, a library, counselling rooms and enlargement of the Industrial Arts, Home Economics, and physical education space for a total of 39,885 sq. ft. The support price of this at the current $17 allowance would be $678,045."

"Building a separate building would mean:

(a) Providing more classrooms.
(b) Building separate Home Economics and Industrial Arts rooms
(c) Providing about 750 sq. ft. more administrative space.
(d) Providing an additional library of 1,800 sq. ft.
(e) Providing more science facilities.
(f) Providing a larger gymnasium."

"It has been assumed that such a building would include: 14 classrooms, including 3 science laboratories, 4 ancillary rooms, 1 library, 1 Home Economics room and 1 Industrial Arts facility, 1 gymnasium plus stage, office, dressing rooms and showers, and 1 administrative area, including officers, staff space and infirmary to a total of 52,205 sq. ft. which assessed at $17 a sq. ft. would mean about $887,485."

"Thus the difference in costs for more than 12,000 additional sq. ft. is assessed at over $200,000. As indicated above, this arises from extra classrooms, science facilities, a further ancillary room, duplication of library and administrative space, an additional stage, and a larger gymnasium. This would provide for renovations in the building to serve as a junior high school. The objection to building an addition has been noted as well

Dutch-Canadians Say "Thank You Canada"

It is twenty-five years ago this month that people in Holland cheered wildly as Canadian troops marched through Holland freeing the people of Holland from the tyranny of Hitler's Germany. It was undoubtedly because of Canada's important role in Dutch Liberation that attracted so many Dutch people to Canada after the war. In May Dutch-Canadians across Canada will be saying "Thank You, Canada", also in our own locality there are many Canadians of Dutch descent. You are invited to attend the following program:

1. Memorial service to be held in the Jubilee Junior High School Auditorium in Edson May 3rd at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Peter Hogetey of Peers will officiate.

2. The laying of a wreath, to honor the Canadian soldiers who fell during the liberation campaign. This will take place at the Legion Cenotaph in Edson on May 5th at 7:30 p.m.

A reception will be held in the Legion Hall on Tuesday, May 5th at 8:00 p.m., hosted by Canadians of Dutch descent to honor ex-service personnel of the Canadian Forces who were in active service in Europe during the Second World War.

Throughout Canada donations are made towards "The Netherlands Memorial Organ". You are invited to send your contribution to: Edson and District Committee 1945-1970, c/o Treasury Branch, Box 1117, Edson, Alberta.

This is a good way for us to show our neighbors how grateful we are to them for freeing us and a good way for us to show our children the meaning of the freedom we now enjoy. Let us thank God together for His mercies toward us and dedicate ourselves to serving Him in love and peace.

as the expression of opinion about the future growth of the enrolments. Speculative forecasts may be significant, particularly, if large enrolment increases require still more addition to some building in a few years. It is noteworthy that the belief in more expansion was emphasized by the Town to the degree that its representatives suggested that it might assume some of the extra costs.

"The Committee will consist of the following: Mayor Peel, A. Shenfield and Doug McNabb."

He asked that the wall to the cloak room be moved back approximately 6 feet to allow more room for the kitchen. This would leave the cloak room 16' x 22' and the kitchen 18' x 22'.

He further mentioned that it is now understood that the new gymnasium will not be ready by June 20th, the date for their Hootenany and they would like to use some other part of the school for this event.

Roses are red, violets are blue. Always. On Panasonic color TV.

Life-like color—that's what you buy color TV for. And that's why Panasonic goes to great lengths to make sure you get it. For a start, we eliminate a lot of dial twiddling with an exclusive Exact-O-Vision tuning bar so you don't have to be an engineer to fine tune our 16" Pennington. A keyed AGC system, which sounds very complex but works very simply, goes in every set to keep color pictures pure, steady and sharp. And because overheating can affect color fidelity, we eliminate a lot of tubes that can burn-up and burn-out with solid state engineering that, by comparison, runs cool as a cucumber. Another example of how we play things your way: we design, engineer and manufacture all our own components. This way we remove all the headaches that used to give you second thoughts about color TV. So what are you waiting for? We've got a great choice of popular-sized portables plus a particularly handsome 19" consolette with walnut cabinetry. Best of all, no matter which Panasonic color set you buy, roses are red, violets are blue. Always.

Parkland Notebook

The many parents who came out to the children's wind-up at the Stony Plain High School last Monday must have felt proud of the program that the children and their instructors presented to them.

Mrs. Ivah's Ukrainian dancers from Wabamun started the evening in colorful costumes and extremely well-done Ukrainian dances. It was followed by two gymnastic classes under the leadership of Maureen Kreye and Linda Richard. A lot of work (and fun) must have taken place before this evening for the children to perform so well.

At intermission the parents were able to see some of the very interesting and colorful crafts which have been done in the Blueberry children's craft class, Mrs. Phyllis Goebel instructing; and the Stony Plain Teen Craft class, Coleen Baron instructing. The children were on hand to answer any questions that the parents had - the teens were busy demonstrating the art of making beads from seeds.

All in all, it was a very successful evening with compliments going to children as well as leaders for a job well done.

The students in the Parkland Recreation classes at Golden Spike had their final wind-up and display last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Holt's leather class showed their project made during the last 10 weeks, such as keycases, wallets, and everything was beautifully done. Mrs. Holt also showed a few items which will be taught in the fall class.

Mrs. Bailey's dressmaking class had an impressive display of tie-dyeing, scarves, samples, dresses and suits. Most of the ladies wore their outfits - many of them pant-suits made of easy-to-care-for fortrel. The ladies proved their skill further, with the delicious lunch served at the end.

The Ceramic Classes are just about finished. Due to the amount of work done by students, all pots will not be fired before end of classes. A pick-up date for finished pieces has been set for Tuesday, May 5th and Tuesday, May 18th from 10 to 12 and 1 to 4 p.m. At the same time anyone who has not yet finished glazing can do so at the same time.

Anyone who is unable to attend on these dates please call the Recreation Department at 777-2211 so other arrangements can be made.

For any students who are interested in continuing their ceramics at home during the spring and summer, you will be able to buy clay from the department at these dates. A glazing date will be set once a month. Please check your local paper for announcements of these dates.

How did those six Sioux get on our beer label? (Six? Count 'em. Six.) To say nothing of three crows. And a Hupmobile. And twenty-nine trees. And our House of Lethbridge. How? Frankly, we don't remember. It all happened many moons ago. But one thing's certain: we'll never change our label. Or the great beer behind it. ### IT WAS GOOD?

The following article attracted attention when reprinted in the Alberta Fish and Game Magazine and Junior Forest Warden organization literature.

Of all the programmes in a recent series, the one that attracted the most interest was by an American student, Kenneth Ross - a finale to the creation story in the book Genesis. Here it is.

"IN THE END there was earth, and it was with form and beauty. And man dwelt upon the lands of the earth, the meadows and trees, and man said 'Let us build our dwellings in this place of beauty'; and man built great cities and covered the earth with concrete and steel. And the meadows were gone. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the second day, man looked upon the waters of the earth and marvelled in their purity. And man said 'Let us put our wastes in the waters that the dirt may be washed away'. And man did. And the waters became polluted and foul in their smell. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the third day, man looked upon the forests of the earth, and saw that they were beautiful. And man said 'Let us cut the timber for our homes and grind the wood for our use.' And man did. And the lands became barren and the trees were gone. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the fourth day, man saw that animals were in abundance and ran in the fields and played in the sun. And man said 'Let us cage these animals for our amusement and kill them for our sport.' And man did. And there were no more animals on the face of the earth. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the fifth day, man breathed the fragrant air of the earth. And man said 'Let us dispose of our wastes into the air for the winds shall blow them away. And the air became heavy with dust that choked and burned. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the sixth day, Man saw himself and many languages and tongues he feared and hated. And man said 'Let me build great machines and destroy these, lest they destroy us'. And man built great machines, and the earth was filled with the rage of great wars. And man said 'It is good.'"

"On the seventh day, man rested from his labours, and the earth was still for man no longer dwelt upon the earth. 'And, it was good.'"

New Pastor Appointed

The Western Canada Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church has announced that a new Pastor has been appointed to the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Berrymoor.

Pastor and Mrs. J. Bend, graduates of Foothills Bible Institute, Winfield, Alberta, are not strangers to the Drayton Valley area. Mr. Bend is a native of Alberta, while Mrs. Bend comes from Manitoba. For the past eight months Mr. Bend has served as associate minister in the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Chilliwack, B.C.

For the past ten years the Berrymoor area has been served by Mrs. Muriel Campbell who has pastored the church, and is a well known figure among Christians of all denominations. Due to the pressure of home and family life Mrs. Campbell has found it necessary to resign from active pastoral duties, but will still be available for special speaking engagements etc. in the area.

Pastor Bend assumes the duties of Pastor in the church immediately and will welcome the opportunity to serve the community in any way he possibly can.

A chronic complainer was driving a waiter mad with her unreasonable demands. "Why is it," she barked, "that I never get what I ask for her?" "Perhaps, madam," replied the waiter, "it is because we are too polite."

S.T.O.P. Seeks Assistance of Alberta Mayors

S.T.O.P. (Save Tomorrow - Oppose Pollution) has asked mayors of cities within the province of Alberta to demand from the provincial government full and complete monitoring of the air in order to determine the extent of air pollution within this province. Many experts outside of government agree that the sulphur content alone in Alberta's air may well be higher than is safe for human and animal intake.

S.T.O.P., a non-organization which came into being as the result of growing concern over rapidly-rising pollution levels, is working in conjunction with the Alberta Wildlife Association and other groups concerned about pollution. S.T.O.P. accepts sponsorship only from the Alberta Tuberculosis and Respiratory Association and other groups concerned about pollution.

S.T.O.P. is also launching a province-wide "dirty picture" contest asking school children and adults to send in their pictures of pollution clearly marked as to location. The entry deadline is September 11, 1970, at which time the pictures will be judged and prizes will be awarded for the best entry.

Mrs. Frances Buzludney of Lindsdale has left for Vancouver to consult with an eye specialist. The Three B's Club of Berrymoor held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Hattie Barrett of Breton on the 25th.

On May 8th, in the evening, a sale of home sewing and baked goods will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Campbell. These items will be offered for auction and activities are slated to begin at 8 p.m. This sale is being put on by the W.A. of the Berrymoor Pentecostal Church and some very attractive clothing articles and a good supply of very tasty baked goods will be available. Everyone is welcome so come and see for yourselves.

Miss Leanne Johnston spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Florence Johnston.

A.A. Round-up This Weekend

"Alcoholism turned successful lawyer into bootlegger".

Hear the story behind this headline on Sunday at the Drayton Valley A.A. Roundup. On May 2nd and 3rd a speaker at their "open" meeting on Sunday, Pat S., a former prosecutor, plus many other recovering alcoholics, tell their stories.

What does the bright, successful, enterprising city prosecutor in a Prairie city do when he needs money to feed his consuming alcoholism?

"Why he sets up the biggest bootlegging operation in town. It's the perfectly natural thing to do," the man's wife told more than 200 people recently.

They all laughed - It was comic and very funny.

But the laughter was also a nervous laughter because they had all seen - or known familiar horrors in their own private lives. They were all alcoholics or the family or friends of alcoholics.

Al-Anon (for wives and friends) will also be represented and will hold an open meeting for the public.

The banquet's main speaker Saturday evening will be George Strachan, author, lecturer and professional counsellor.

THE WESTERN REVIEW

Drayton Valley, Alberta

April 29, 1970

Alcoholism is a community problem and it is hoped that many members of the community will make a point of attending one or more of the public meetings to learn what is being done by A.A. to combat this very real problem in every town and city.

Meetings will be held in the Legion Hall with an open meeting Saturday evening following the banquet and others at breakfast Sunday between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. and at 2:30 p.m.

A long life may not be good enough; but a good life is long enough.

Couple Celebrate 40th Anniversary

On April 11th, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Combs were honored on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary. A reception was held in the Drayton Valley Legion Hall.

Mr. Combs came from Oklahoma to Tomahawk in 1913 and moved to Rocky Rapids in 1915 where he has resided ever since. Mrs. Combs moved to Entwistle in 1913 from Kansas.

They were married in the Pastor's home of Rev. and Mrs. H.C. Gardner, Edmonton in 1930.

Mr. Combs hauled mail from Entwistle to Drayton Valley for four years and then went into the trucking business. He hauled freight in this district approximately 33 years and then hauled gravel until his retirement in 1965.

They have five children and ten grandchildren, all of whom were present for the occasion. Out of town guests included: Mrs. Lona Chamberlin, Edmonton; Adelia and Clarence Combs, Edmonton; Thoma and Annie Townsend, Edmonton; Hilliard and Victoria Cass, Edmonton; Martin and Bertha Richert, Edmonton; Fred and Delia Daly, Stony Plain; Floreen Daly, Edmonton; Ruby Bray, Edmonton; Dickie Bouchie, Edmonton; Earl and Marie Jones, Calmar; Ella Kidner, Entwistle; Stanley and Mary Seketa, Edmonton; John and Sarah Paul, Calmar; and Jeanette Snell, East-ern Canada.

Entertainment for the evening included a song by Mrs. Snell; poem made up and read by one of the family, and Wanda Anderson and Wayne Thomas, grandchildren of the couple, played their accordians and everyone sang happy birthday to Mrs. Douglas sister of Mrs. Combs.

Everyone had a lovely visit and talked of old times. Lunch was served in the evening.

BEEF CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Tomahawk 4-H Beef Club was held on April 14th at V. Enjeneski's. Co-hosts were the Dunbars. The pledge was led by Pauline Dunbar and roll call was, "My judging score."

Since the calf tour had been called off due to poor weather, it was decided to have it on April 25th starting at 1:00 o'clock at Grubers.

The club decided to have their club outing during Farmers Day Weekend.

To raise money the club will hold a raffle. The draw will be for a tape recorder.

Problems with the calves were discussed and a report was given by Linda Brydges on, "Special Points to consider in judging finished cattle."

A mistake was made in the report of the club competitions in Public Speaking. Frank Gruber's name was accidentally omitted. He too, was one of the contestants.

FARM FAMILY AWARDS

Agriculture Minister H. A. Ruste has announced that nominations are open for the 1970 Alberta Master Farm Family Awards. Nomination forms and complete information may be obtained at any of the District Extension offices.

The maximum number of awards is again limited to five. One may be selected from each of five zones.

The Master Farm Family award is the highest honor that the Department of Agriculture can bestow on an Alberta farm family. The standards of selection are high, making this a meaningful farm family award.

This program was designed to honor farm families who have achieved notable success in farming, homemaking and citizenship. Mr. Ruste said families selected demonstrate practices that ensure farm and family progress and by their example draw attention to the opportunities and higher ideals of agricultural and rural living.

Nominations for the Master Farm Family Award must be proposed and signed by at least three neighbors, accepted by the nominee and filed with the District Agriculturist or District Home Economist by June 30, 1970.

The nominees will be judged during the summer. The Master Farm Family Award includes a suitably engraved plaque, a gate sign and $1,000 cash.

Community organizations are invited to assist in locating suitable candidates.

SUB-MITS

FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A water break in the school last week left a small flood in the main hall of the school. As a result several hundred tiles were loosened.

Last week was registration for beginners. If you have a beginner, that is not yet registered, would you do so as soon as possible. This is necessary in order to plan for the necessary staff and classroom space. These new beginners will be coming to school for one week in June for orientation. More about this later.

Joke of the Week -- Did you hear about the grade three student who went on a plane trip so high that clouds got in his ears. When he yawned they popped out.

Livestock Division Director Anticipates Good Beef Future

OTTAWA -- Every piece of beef begins as a cow and calf on grass.

So, if Canadian consumers want more beef, farmers will just have to raise more cattle. It's that simple -- at least from the consumer's point of view.

To the farmer or rancher the solution isn't quite that clear-cut. For one thing, it takes time; and for another, it takes money to increase beef herds.

R. K. Bennett, director of the Canada Department of Agriculture's Livestock Division, says increasing beef numbers is not only a slow process, but also a costly business.

It takes three years from the date of a step-up in the number of heifer calves kept for breeding until there is an increase in the amount of fed beef, explains Mr. Bennett.

Say you start with 1969 heifer calves. They are bred in 1970 and drop calves in the spring of 1971. By fall the young calves -- feeder calves to those in the business -- go into feedlots and by late 1972 or early 1973 they are ready for slaughter.

From 1969 to 1972 -- that's a long time to wait for your Sunday roast.

At present, says Mr. Bennett, there are less than three million beef cows in Canada. That means there are not enough beef cattle to slaughter larger numbers without reducing the breeding herd.

The livestock expert feels the long-term market picture for both feeder cattle and fed beef is getting brighter every day.

Certainly if growing consumer demand is any indication, it's happy days ahead for the beef farmer. At present, per capita beef consumption in Canada and the United States averages 107 pounds annually. By 1980 it is expected to jump another 20 pounds -- and that's a rock bottom estimate.

A 20-pound per capita increase in beef consumption means a 36 per cent increase in beef cows will be needed to meet the demand for fed beef. That's in Canada and the U.S. combined.

Some authorities predict that Canada alone will need a 52 per cent increase in beef cattle numbers to supply consumer demand by 1980.

And, notes Mr. Bennett, there are several factors that could make these figures seem conservative.

Per capita income is rising. There is a growing consumer preference for beef. Population growth could return to the level of the early sixties. (Introduction of the "pill" is blamed for the recent slowdown.)

So, how do farmers take advantage of a potentially good market? Even a 36 per cent increase means a lot more beef cattle, particularly considering present use and carrying capacity of range lands. Range management specialists say re-seeding and fertilization could increase carrying capacity -- but not enough to increase the numbers of feeder cattle to meet the demand from feedlot operators for replacement animals.

The main increase will likely come from expanding cow-calf operations onto land now being used for something else.

Western farmers are in the best position to compete for the growing feeder cattle market. They have a growing market and the resources; that is land, acceptable basic breeding stock and the livestock know-how. Feed grain and feedlot facilities are also available to finish more feeder cattle in western Canada.

"Certainly," says Mr. Bennett, "There is no cause for gloom in the current situation and short-term outlook -- and there is plenty of optimism about the long-term outlook."

"That is if the North American beef herd builds up a moderate rate," he adds. "Should ranchers and other cattlemen abandon caution and start a massive breeding herd expansion, fed cattle prices would rise in the years just ahead, reflecting the holdback of heifers from feedlots and slaughter."

"Then longer term production could be greater, perhaps excessive, and prices would eventually go lower."

Members Enjoy Investment Club

If you were to ask any of the Grade nine members of the 1970 investment group why did you purchase 20 shares of Canadian Canners Class A Stock, they would more than likely reply.

What happened was this. I looked ahead and saw a big pile of dollars. Out of it stuck a sign. It said "Help Yourself", on it, in huge letters. I had a brand new shovel in my hand. There was not another soul in sight, so I had no competition in the gold-shoveling, which is one beauty of seeing the dollar-heap ahead of others. It was the first time I had seen big money ahead, and I naturally started toward it on the run. Before I could reach the dollar-pile my wind went back on me and I fell to the ground. The pile of dollars was still there, but I had lost my shovel and the wagon was gone. So much for sprinting too soon (what many indicate when they say to us - Canadian Canners?) I was eager to prove to myself I had seen real dollars and not a mirage. I saw, and knew that I saw. Thinking about the reward for my excellent sight kept me from considering the distance to the dollar heap. Is our first economic lesson that we should walk and not sprint?

In order to raise funds for investment the group is sponsoring a number of projects. The first is a marble guessing contest where for ten cents one may guess the number in a jar. When the contest closes the individual with the nearest guess will be awarded two theatre passes for any show of his choice in Drayton Valley or Edmonton. During the first week of the contest the group has raised $17.45.

A second project under way is a basketball free throw contest where a contestant gets ten shots for ten cents. During the first week 1860 shots went up. The contest will continue until Wednesday of this week.

The main business of the Board of Directors at this moment is still the constitution and the legalizing of the group, that is being handled by a law firm at present.

Since the public is supporting this educational project by taking part in different fund raising activities, a financial statement of the group will be published in The Western Review. The cost of the group's first stock purchase was $120 (one hundred and twenty dollars).

PARKCOURT NEWS

The regular meeting of the Gay Gatherers was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Greenwood on Sunday night. Material for the coming bazaar was passed out. The large quilt blocks the club has been working on were fashioned into a quilt with more work to be done later in order to complete it. A white elephant sale was held with the ladies bringing unidentified articles to be auctioned.

Mr. Albert Tuftin is still in the hospital after his operation. Many relatives and friends have been to Stony Plain to see him.

Miss Julia Semenyna is currently home for a few days holidays before commencing work at camp He Ho Ha for the summer months.

Quite a few men have been engaged in getting their logs out to the sawmill and getting back their lumber from Mr. Hardy's Sawmill where it is now set up at Albert Tuftins.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Horz of Edmonton were out in the district for the weekend.

On Saturday night a large crowd of old friends and neighbors gathered at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. John Paulduro and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Paulduro to give them a surprise housewarming party. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Marchand and Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Fausak. After all had seen the new house, dancing was enjoyed. A gift of a coffee table was presented to the happy couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ohl made a trip to Penticton over the weekend.

We all become involved in spring clean-up. The main purpose is to beautify but a useful side benefit is to reduce the fire risk. Some communities will proclaim this week as spring clean-up week. Chambers of Commerce take the lead in this promotion and it can vary according to local conditions. There are many important things to be done but I wish to relate certain activities associated directly with the fire hazard.

Land clean-up and brush burning has in the past caused many brush fires and forest fires. These frequently involve buildings. An important rule is to never burn without first getting a permit from the area Fire Warden or from the Fire Chief. Permits to burn are restricted in the spring season and in most urban municipalities open rubbish burning is prohibited. Another danger from open fires is the risk of clothing catching fire. Older people and small children are the most likely victims.

Finally, watch that painting project very carefully. Paint thinners are very flammable so observe the caution on the container, that is, "Keep away from heat or open flames." To be safe, use paint thinners and oil paint brush cleaning materials outside of dwellings and major buildings and dispose of paint rags at once right after the day's painting is done.

A.E. Bridges,
Alberta Fire Commissioner

MAY FOOD OUTLOOK

OTTAWA--With demand and consumer preference continuing strong, beef prices can be expected to be firm to higher, reports the Canada Department of Agriculture in its monthly Food Outlook. Prices for pork can be expected to show some seasonal strength.

EGGS -- Plentiful supplies at lower prices.

POULTRY -- Broiler and roaster chicken will be in plentiful supply at lower prices. Broiler turkey supplies will be plentiful, possibly with some slight easing of prices. Heavy turkey supplies will be adequate at firm prices.

Royal Purple to Go Ahead With Plans for Home

In June of 1969, the ladies of the Order of Royal Purple canvassed the Town of Drayton Valley and District for names to a petition to the Premier of the Province of Alberta for a much-needed Senior Citizens Home for this area. His reply gave no encouragement of any future prospective building plans for a home in this area, but only referred us back to Meridian Foundation at Stony Plain who had already advised they would not give their approval.

It would appear then that if we want this accommodation for Senior Citizens in Drayton Valley we must do it ourselves, and it is our intention, with the aid of the whole community, to proceed with this project through local and Government financing.

As a starter, an account has been opened at the Royal Bank of Canada under the name: "Purple Pansy Senior Citizens Home Building Fund".

Anyone wishing to contribute to this community fund may either deposit directly to the Bank or forward your donation to: Mrs. Joan Pruden, Box 192, Drayton Valley, Alberta.

During the coming weeks many activities will be taking place with proceeds all earmarked for this building fund, watch for them. We welcome and humbly solicit assistance from every individual and organization who wish to participate in this worthwhile cause. Remember, perhaps your grandparents, your parents, or even yourselves will be in need of a comfortable home where the twilight years may be enjoyable and pleasant, while still maintaining personal independence and dignity.

ed specific comments on the back of their score cards, pertaining to each individual article.

For the beginner sewer or any homemaker who would like a good reference book on sewing I'd suggest buying the Simplicity or McCall's Sewing Book. It contains "oodles" of good information on different sewing techniques.

APPEARANCE: First impression of an article is very important. The poorly pressed or soiled articles and those with loose threads are immediately placed on a lower grading scale. From the judge's viewpoint, a neat, clean well pressed article with a pleasing color combination invokes the judge to think "Here's a person who cares about her work." From this point on, we began to look for the use of good sewing techniques.

Straight stitching and correct tension add to the garments appearance as well as determine its durability.

Understitching, a technique used to prevent the armhole and neckline facings from showing should be used. This row of stitching is as close to the edge of the garment as possible and attaches the seam allowance, after it has been graded and clipped to the facing. Facings needn't be tacked all the way around but just in two or three places-possibly the shoulder and underarm seams.

Zippers: a lapped zipper should be lapped from left to right. If you get confused when inserting one in the back of a dress, remember the direction of the lap on the side zipper in one of your skirts or slacks. If properly constructed, a lapped zipper should only have one row of machine stitching visible. I prefer the look of a lapped zipper over the centre application because it isn't easy to keep the two sides even in width.

Don't forget to put the top of your zipper tape at the seam line so when the neckline seam is sewn and the facing folded down there is not an excess of bulk and there is room left for a hook and eye.

Seam Finishes: for years home economists and clothing instructors have been saying "Don't make anything without finishing the seams." Now with the influx of polyesters on the market we must change our techniques as the fabrics change.

Fortrel knits and many of the firm weave polyesters and wool need no seam finish at all. It is a waste of your time and energy to finish the seams just as it is a waste of your money to dry clean a garment that is machine washable.

Loose weave fabrics and materials that ravel easily should have the seams finished by one of the following techniques - pink and edge stitch, zig-zag, overcast, turn under and edge stitch or you may wish to use a french seam or flat-felled seam.

Hems: Seam tape is out. Firmly woven fabrics need nothing other than a Tailor's Hem. This technique requires a row of machine stitching 1/4" from the edge on the hem only, then fold the hem back and do a catch

Tennis Lessons Being Offered

As his lessons are semi-private (4 players per hour) the registration is limited. Kindly register with Fr. Lynch at 542-3254 before Sunday, May 3rd. Free use of the tennis courts ends April 30.

There will be a work-bee at the courts this Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

stitch to attach the hem to the garment. This technique produces a hem that isn't rigid and stitches that are covered and not likely to catch in one's shoe. For fabrics that tend to ravel, turn the raw edge under and follow the same directions.

Good luck with your sewing endeavors. Feel free to phone me at the South Edmonton office on Thursdays to discuss your sewing problems. Why not drop in with your sewing project and we'll discuss any problems you might have.

The Northern Stores Department is the senior branch of the Hudson's Bay Company. The present network of 217 stores grew from a single small establishment on the lonely shores of James Bay. This company store is at Tuktuuk in the Western Arctic.

Exhibit Feature of 300th Year

"The Bay 300 Years Bold" is the theme of the historical exhibit which will tour the country this year as part of the Hudson's Bay Company Anniversary celebrations.

Designed to demonstrate, in brilliant visual form, the Company's history from the 1660's to the present, it could also be considered a study in Canadian history.

Viewers will be taken from London in that early period, through the wars with the French, to the Treaty of Utrecht in 1713. Reference is made to the dramatic exploits of Company explorers Samuel Hearne, Henry Kelsey, Anthony Henday and Dr. John Rae. The wilderness that was Canada during the heyday of the North West Company and the union of that company and the H B C in 1821 will also be highlighted, together with the golden era when Governor George Simpson welded the Company into a giant fur trade empire. Following the transition from this sphere of interest into a modern Canadian retailing operation is graphically described.

Other items in the exhibit will include a model of the "Non-such" and a Company stern-wheeler. Fur trade artifacts - axes, beads, guns, knives and carrots of tobacco - are strikingly presented as well as merchandise typical of the items sold in turn-of-the-century "saleshops".

EVANSBURG NEWS

Green grass is beginning to make its appearance in our yard now, so we know definitely that spring is here to stay for another season.

The Cubs and Scouts of the 1st Pembina Valley Group, along with their leaders and some of the parents, went on a tour of places in the city recently. Places visited were the Planetarium, the Alberta Museum and Archives, the Legislative buildings and the Industrial Airport. At the airport, the boys were shown all through a large passenger aircraft, courtesy CPA. Since they left here at eight in the morning and returned at six in the evening, they must have been a group of tired boys, although they certainly didn't show it on arrival home.

The members of the Legion held their meeting recently and made plans for the forthcoming VE Day celebration. It was decided to have a social evening and dance in the Legion Hall with dancing to the Carl Ohl Orchestra. Legion members as well as their friends are welcome to observe this VE Day anniversary.

A Wake-a-thon was sponsored by the teen club of the village recently. The contest began Friday evening at eight and was to end at midnight on Sunday. A large number started, but only three finished and that finish was at noon on Monday. Since all three contestants were still very much awake at that time, it was all agreed to call a draw and split the prize money three ways instead of each trying to out do the other. The money earned by the club through this endeavor will be shared by the club itself and the Centennial Arena building fund.

The three successful contestants to keep awake for 64 hours were Mrs. Rose-Alma Flieder, Alex Paron and Barbara Erikson. Congratulations to the winners and also to all those who tried and stayed awake for a good number of hours.

Mr. Bernard Feldberg and his mother motored to Barrhead recently to visit friends. Mr. Feldberg remarked on the amount of water he saw standing in the fields in that area, compared to what we have in our district.

Welcome home from hospital to Mr. Ivan Brown who is to be seen back at work at B & F Sales. Hope Mr. Brown keeps on feeling fine.

Members of the Lobstick 4-H Club held their annual club calf tour on Sunday, April 19th. Only two members' families could not be visited as the roads were impassible.

Several stockmen in the area went on a bus tour of various stock farms in the province recently.

And the new additions to our barnyard this week are, some kittens of varying shades, a black and white pinto filly and a litter of seven white bunnies.
